John 2

v. 1-12

v. 13-25

“It is impossible not to feel the change which at this point [v. 13] comes over the narrative. There is a change of place, of occasion, and of manner of action. Jerusalem and Cana, the Passover and the marriage feast, the stern Reformer and the sympathizing Guest. ...The first represents the ennobling of common life, the second the purifying of divine worship.”

* Palm Sunday / Matthew 21

¹⁴ In the temple courts He found people selling cattle (βοας—Ox), sheep and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money. ¹⁵ So He made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple courts, both sheep and cattle (βοας—Ox); He scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.”

“So He made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple courts, both sheep and cattle; He scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.”

Why?

To those who sold doves He said, "Get these out of here!
Stop turning my Father's house into a market!"

John 2:16

These people had turned the temple,
His Father's House!,
into an emporium.
A bazaar. A mall.

“What in God’s Name do
you think you are doing!”

“What did Jesus see?

He saw that this bazaar was not advancing communion with his heavenly Father.

It was not flowing from the love of God.

It was flowing from the love of money.

And what made it worse was that religious ritual,
and phony helpfulness, were being used as a cover for greed. That’s what Jesus saw—hypocrisy. Religion used as a front for greed. Empty forms of love for God plastering over the insatiable love of money.”

John Piper

Psalm 69

6 Lord, the Lord Almighty,
may those who hope in you
not be disgraced because of me;

God of Israel,

may those who seek you
not be put to shame because of me.

9 ...for zeal for your house consumes me,

and the insults of those who insult you fall on me.

zeal (zēl) noun:

Great energy or enthusiasm in pursuit of a cause or an objective.

Synonyms: passion, love, fervor, fire, devotion, enthusiasm, gusto, vigor, energy, intensity.

18 The Jews then responded to Him,
“What sign can you show us to prove your authority to do all this?”

Is Jesus right?

Do the Jews know that Jesus is right?

Do the Jews want to change?

What do they do?

If we (in our minds) can undermine Jesus' authority—
we can justify and continue right on in our sin and disobedience (lust, greed, jealously, you name it...).

This has Satan's fingerprint
all over it!

Genesis 3:1-5

When we undermine God's authority,
we deflect responsibility—
and justify our disobedience.

19 Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days.”

This response was burned into the minds of both the Jews—
and the Disciples.

- Matthew 26:57-63
- John 20:8

“The Cross is the key to the right understanding of every story in John.”

Frederick Dale Bruner

22 After He was raised from the dead,
His disciples recalled what He had said.
Then they believed the Scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken.

You can't sorta believe in Jesus.

Nobody every spoke like this.

This is either insanity—or the most precious truth in the history of the world.

Jesus is either crazy, or He is God.
