Mark 10:17-22

As Jesus started on his way, a man ran up to him and fell on his knees before him. “Good teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Mark 10:17

“Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No one is good—except God alone.”

Mark 10:18

“You know the commandments: ‘Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.’”

Mark 10:19

“For I command you today to love the Lord your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commands, decrees, and laws: then you will live and increase, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land you are entering to possess.”

Deuteronomy 30:16

“Teacher,” he declared, “all these I have kept since I was a boy.”

Mark 10:20

Jesus looked at him and loved him. “One thing you lack,” he said. “Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

Mark 10:21

“I tell you the truth,” Jesus replied, “no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age (homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—and with them persecutions) and in the age to come eternal life.”

Mark 10:29-30

At this the man's face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth.

Mark 10:22

But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ.

Philippians 3:7-8

Who am I?

Mark 10:23-27

“Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.”

Do you see yourself as helpless, needy, and lost? Someone who needs a Savior?

OR

Do you see yourself as self-sufficient, independent, and good. Your own Savior?

What is hindering me from giving my allegiance to you?

What idols are in my life?

What do I lack in regards to being completely obedient to you?

I said to the Lord, "You are my Lord; apart from you I have no good thing." The sorrows of those will increase who run after other gods. Lord, you have assigned me my portion and my cup, you have made my lot secure.

Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices, my body is secure, because you will not abandon me to the grave. You have made known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

Amen
