Setting Others Free

by Dr. Jody Bowser, Senior Pastor

Leading people to Christ ... requires all of us to be engaged in the effort—praying and sharing. Every day. Everywhere we go.

We are extremely blessed here in Franklin County to be living in such a “history rich” area. It is no small thing to be living just down the road from Gettysburg. The events that unfolded in the fields surrounding that quaint little town back in early July of 1863 literally changed the course of our country and in many ways the course of the world.

There are many stories of heroism and sacrifice that can be told about Gettysburg, but perhaps none greater than the story of Colonel Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain who commanded the 20th Maine, a part of the Union Army’s Fifth Corps. Back in 1993, a movie was made about the battle of Gettysburg that focused on Colonel Chamberlain (the movie is called Gettysburg, and is based on the 1974 book by Michael Shaara called Killer Angels).

Early in the movie—just a day or so before the actual battle of Gettysburg—Colonel Chamberlain is given charge of a group of mutineers from another disbanded Maine regiment. These were soldiers who had had enough of the war and were refusing to obey orders. The men had completely lost sight of what they were fighting for and were willing to face a court-martial rather than risk their lives in another battle.

What happens next is one of my favorite scenes—not only in that movie but in any movie. Chamberlain knows that he needs these men to fight. For that to happen, he needs them to understand WHY they need to fight. They have to understand that what they are a part of is far bigger than themselves. As it turns out, the Battle of Gettysburg was THE pivotal battle in the entire Civil War and Joshua Chamberlain's

At the end of the day, that is why King Street Church exists. We are here to make disciples. We are here to reach lost people. We are here to complete the work of Christ on this earth—to “seek and to save the lost” (Luke 19:10).

stand on Little Round Top with the 20th Maine was perhaps THE pivotal battle at Gettysburg. I know it's just a movie, but I LOVE what Chamberlain says to those men:

“We’re moving out in a few minutes. We’ll be moving all day. I’ve been ordered to take you men with me, I’m told that—that if you don’t come I can shoot you. Well, you know I won’t do that. Maybe somebody else will, but I won’t. So that’s that.

Here’s the situation. The whole Reb army is up that road already waiting for us, so this is no time for an argument like this. I tell you, we could surely use you fellas. We’re now well below half strength. Whether you fight or not, that’s up to you. You know who we are, what we’re doing here, but if you are going to fight alongside us, there are a few things I want you to know.

This regiment was formed last summer in Maine. There were a thousand of us then. There are less than three hundred of us now. All of us volunteered to fight for the union, just as you did. Some came mainly because we were bored at home—thought this looked like it might be fun. Some came because we were ashamed not to. Many of us came because it was the right thing to do. And all of us have seen men die.

This is a different kind of army. If you look back through history, you will see men fighting for pay, for women, for some other kind of loot. They fight for land, power, because a king leads them—or just because they like killing. But we are here for something new. This has not happened much in the history of the world. We are an army out to set other men free.”

It’s that last sentence that really stays with me. “We are an army out to set other men free.” In many ways that perfectly describes the Church. That is precisely who we are and what we’re about. The Church is engaged in a spiritual battle—going into all the world in order to bring lost people out of the darkness and into the light of Christ.

That is why King Street Church exists. We are here to make disciples. We are here to reach lost people. We are here to complete the work of Christ on this earth, to “seek and to save the lost” (Luke 19:10).

This past year we saw 61 people come to faith in Christ. Thanks be to God! But I am asking the Lord for even more in 2020. It is my prayer that more than 100 people come to faith in Christ this year. And I am asking God to help ALL OF US be a part of this work. I want this to be a church-wide goal and a church-wide effort. Leading people to Christ isn’t just something that the pastors do ... or just something that happens in programs that take place in the church building. This requires all of us to be engaged in the effort, praying and sharing. Every day. Everywhere we go.

In some ways, I feel a bit like Joshua Chamberlain speaking to those soldiers on their way to Gettysburg (with the one difference being the fact that you are NOT mutineers!). We are a different kind of army. As followers of Christ, we are not here for ourselves. We are quite literally an army out to set other people free!

Many ministries including Agape, the After have signed up to be in L3 groups. There are over 40 groups forming with leaders that have been trained. His 2020 Vision Series is entitled

Jesus in a Broken World," "Living a Life of Gen-

ACTIVE MILITARY

Ian Hann
Corbin Sipe

February is here and March is just around the corner. Once More Ministries' next distribution day will be here before we realize it and all the volunteers will be preparing for another awesome day of meeting and serving our neighbors.

It is a blessing for the leaders and volunteers of OMM to represent King Street Church as we present the Gospel along with a gift of toiletries to our friends and neighbors. We see in our everyday lives many of these folks and we pray about their eternity. This ministry gives the church an opportunity to reach them with the Gospel, to help them find and follow Jesus. Please keep the volunteers and recipients in your prayers.

With your donations and the partnership of King Street Church, this ministry is thriving. Donation bins have been removed from the foyers to prevent clutter and are now located downstairs in the library. There are also plastic tubs in Sunday school classrooms for your convenience. All of these will be checked and emptied periodically by OMM volunteers.

The inventory list seems extensive but with your help and God's blessings, we always have enough to benefit everyone. A list of the needs are as follows.

- Toilet paper (individually wrapped or small package)
- Paper towels (individually wrapped or small package)

- Feminine products
- Shampoo
- Conditioner
- Men's and Women's deodorant
- Dish soap
- Bar soap
- Laundry Detergent
- Fabric Softener
- Tissues
- Toothpaste and toothbrushes
- Razors
- Shave cream

New Student Ministry Administrative Assistant: Lauren Dukehart

Lauren Dukehart was recently hired as our new Student Ministry Administrative Assistant. She is currently finishing up her last semester at Messiah College. When she graduates in May, she will receive a degree in Christian Ministries with a concentration in Youth Ministry.

Lauren Dukehart

Lauren grew up in Mercersburg and attended Ebenezer UB Church in Greencastle. She knew of King Street Church and met Matt Gish and John Shadle when her pastor invited her to attend a cluster meeting here in Chambersburg. Cluster meetings are gatherings of pastors and leaders in our United Brethren in Christ denomination.

Lauren was looking for a practicum experience in student ministry. She applied and received the internship at KSC last summer.

"I loved the internship," Lauren says. "My biggest takeaway was a sense of community in the church and staff. I'm still really good friends with a lot of the other interns. The internship gave me a lot of the experience that I needed to affirm that student ministry is where I want to be."

Lauren went on our missions trip to Philadelphia with Urban Hope at the end of July. She felt that this was a real turning point in her decision to dedicate herself to student ministry. The students who went on the trip made a big impact on her. "They dove into everything they did, wholeheartedly, and that inspired me," Lauren says. "There was a night when they shared their impressions of the trip and I could see that they were really impacted by the experience. I realized how youth ministry can influence teenagers in a huge way and I knew I wanted to be a part of that."

She was guided in a similar way. Lauren says, "Youth ministry is pretty much why I have the faith that I do. Since it has had that impact on my own life, I want to be able to participate in that as well."

Through her role in student ministry, Lauren hopes to see increased responsibility and opportunities for leadership.

A good friend of Lauren's passed away in April 2016. In a letter that she wrote to Lauren not long before she died, she wrote out John 16:33b, "In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world." This is now Lauren's favorite verse.

In her spare time Lauren loves to sing and write in her journal. She also enjoys spending time with family and friends.

New Creative Arts Intern: Tatianna Regels

Tatianna Regels has recently come on board at King Street Church as our Creative Arts Intern. The goal of this position is to tell the story, particularly by video, of what God is doing in and through the people of King Street Church in our mission of engaging and blessing our community with the Gospel.

Tatianna is currently a junior at Fullsail University, pursuing a degree in Digital Cinematography. Although she is learning valuable knowledge in the field, she was looking for a way to earn industry experience. When she learned about the opportunity from a friend who attends King Street Church, Tatianna was immediately interested. Movie-making is her passion and she also greatly desires to work in a Christian field. The internship here was a perfect fit!

Tatianna Regels

Tatianna is very busy: she is a full-time student and also works full-time at the Chick-fil-A in Hagerstown. She was completely willing to take on this opportunity because it supported the work of God. "I couldn't pass it up!" she says.

From a young age Tatianna had a passion for movie-making. She was the type of person who loved to watch behind-the-scenes features for shows and movies. Her mom owned a nice camera and when she was 16, she bought her own lens and started taking photos. She recently got a video camera.

Tatianna was raised in the church; her mom is a very devoted Christian and her dad is an atheist. Her mom has been very intentional to make sure that her children grew up in the faith. A few years ago Tatianna went on a SWAP (Sharing With Appalachian People) missions trip in WV. On that trip her team made repairs to homes that were falling apart and served the families that lived there. She says, "It was a hard week, but I loved it so much that I did it again!"

In speaking of the internship, Tatianna says, "I have done the studying, but I am a visual person, and I learn best by doing." She believes it will be a transformative process to act on the things that she is learning in this practical way.

When asked how the internship is going, Tatianna quickly says, "Oh I love it! I love filming the midweeks with Pastor Jody. Those videos are something you can send to a friend, someone who might not even know God and he talks about things that relate to anybody. They impact people and that's what I love about the job." Tatianna is inspired by the knowledge that videos have the power to help real people.

On Friday, February 7, King Street Church will host NTS at Antrim Brethren in Christ Church. We have over 300 volunteers helping (from KSC, Antrim BIC and our community) and 150 very excited guests who can't wait to attend! Please pray for this event, for our volunteers and our guests, that everyone would have a safe, enjoyable time and that our guests would feel loved and appreciated.

Quotes of the Week

"God calls us to know Jesus, really know Him intimately and focus our whole being on Him as we run the race of the Christian life—while taking our attention off of this world system around us and allowing Jesus Christ to live through us."

The apostle Paul writes, "I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me" (Galatians 2:20).

Pastor Ron Cook,
December 29, 2019

"We always have hope because this world is not our home."

Pastor Jody Bowser,
January 7, 2020

"For far too many, church is all about what we want. Not who God is."

Pastor Jody Bowser
January 12, 2020

"Generosity flows from a transformed heart. When God is on the throne of our hearts, it completely changes the way we handle our money and possessions—and how we respond to those in need. We give because God gives."

MISSIONS NEWS

Trip to Russia 2020

It's a chance to invest in the lives of adult orphans through the ministry of Orphans Tree.

What does it mean to be a man? A woman? Orphans raised without benefit of family or faith just don't know. We will be teaching the biblical models of a man and a woman as part of an Activities Camp on June 11-20 in Ivanovo with KSC partner Orphans' Tree. An informational meeting will be held on Sunday, February 9 at 9:30 and 11 a.m. in M24 (downstairs). Information on a second camp in late August will also be shared. Send questions to John Smith at pastorjohn@me.com or Pastor Jay at jbrown@kschurch.org.

Pray for Trip to Jamaica!

by Pastor Ron Cook
Team Leader

There are three members of our church family traveling to Jamaica from February 2 through 11, 2020. The team includes Rick Sanders, Dave Zentmyer and myself. We will be going with eight people from the Salem United Brethren Church.

We will be working on several projects at the Regent College of the Caribbean (formerly Jamaica Bible College). One year ago when there were nine of us from King Street Church that went, I built kitchen cabinets for the existing dorm kitchen. However, we did not have time to install the cabinets, so I will be doing that on Monday and Tuesday and making the Formica counter top.

Last year, the men from King Street Church erected the form and poured 28 tons of concrete for a ceiling (which is also a floor for second floor room) in preparation for the installing of the roof over the entire new dining hall/multipurpose building for the college. The roof has been installed since we were there last year. This year our team will be installing the concrete block gable ends for the building. We will also build the porch for the front of the building.

Several prayer requests:

- Pray for travel safety going to Jamaica on February 2 and returning on February 11.
- Pray for safety and protection while we are in Jamaica doing the construction work.

- Pray that we will be able to secure all of the materials that are needed for the projects. This can be a challenge in Jamaica.
- Pray for the health of each one of us.
- Pray for me as I will be teaching eight devotionals and preaching at the college chapel on Thursday, February 6.

(Serving in Thailand with TEAM Global Missions)

A Time to Mourn and a Time to Dance

As our time in the US comes to a close, we can hardly believe it's time for us to return to Thailand already. We can't thank you enough for the support you have shown our family in this time. It has been both a time of reunions and rejoicing, as well as a time of challenges and difficulties. In these past six months we have been reunited with family and friends in six states, mourned the loss of grandparents, celebrated milestones and birthdays, cut down our own Christmas tree and said some tough goodbyes. God has seen us through it all and He is forever faithful.... He is the Light that shines in even the darkest of times and it is this Hope that we are clinging to as we return to the mission field.

Praises

- We reached our goal of 100% funded!!! Thank you!
- We are approved to head out on Sunday, January 5.

Prayers

- We really need your prayers as we pack, travel, and transition.
- Sleep and health for the whole family
- Smooth re-integration into our community in Chiang Mai.

Runaway Update and Mixed Blessings

The sad news is "Fran" is still not home, BUT the parents have seen pictures that connect her to another young lady's home not too far away. The young lady's parents deny any involvement, but it would "seem" that she is at least safe. Praise the Lord. Keep praying for this fractured family.

More Pain from Iraq

Please pray for one of our Yazidi English students, "Molly," whose sister-in-law attempted suicide this week and died from her injuries this weekend. She leaves behind a husband and three children. Another ministry partner was with Molly and her family this afternoon, and it was intensely sad. She and two Yazidis who profess Jesus were silently praying over all in the room. Please pray for her heart and family. We yearn for them to know the hope of Jesus.

God's Protection

We had a small kitchen fire last week, but praise God, it could have been so much worse. Praise God S was able to put out two fires and blow a third small one out before the firemen arrived and helped air out the house. (B wasn't home and S was home with a sick J.) B got a call the next morning to assist victims of a fire. The three residents lost their apartments and almost everything in them. Praise God that we got the privilege of being Jesus' hands for one of the ladies and we were thrilled that J was feeling well enough to help B meet some needs by the weekend. S would have, but at that moment, she was home with T who had a stomach virus. God knew J needed to be a part and it was significant in his life.
