

The image depicts the interior of a tomb, looking out through a large, circular opening. A massive, smooth, light-colored stone has been rolled away from the entrance, resting on the right side. A white cloth lies on the floor of the tomb. Outside, the landscape is a dry, hilly terrain under a vibrant sunrise sky with shades of orange, red, and purple. In the distance, three crosses stand on a hill, and a single tree is visible on the left. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong lens flare effect.

Rejoice, rejoice, O Christian,
Lift up your voice and sing
Eternal hallelujahs to Jesus Christ, the King!
The Hope of all who seek Him,
The help of all who find,
None other is so loving, so good and kind.

He lives, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today!
He walks with me and talks with me along life's narrow way.
He lives, He lives, salvation to impart!
You ask me how I know He lives?
He lives within my heart.

Rev. Robert William Dale said:

“While preparing an Easter sermon, the thought came to me that Christians say much about the risen Lord, yet do not realize that He is alive.”
